CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

By Appointment.

Westminster Hall, one of the most ancient portions of the Houses of Parliament, is the only remnant left of the palace of the Anglo-Saxon kings. It was enlarged in 1398 by Richard II, and is remarkable as being one of the largest hall's in the world with a wooden ceiling not supported by pillars (the ceiling was repaired in 1820 with wood from old men-of-war). Many interesting historical events have taken place under this roof.
